

Sharks- Fact or Fiction?

Sharks can sometimes be seen as scary and dangerous animals, but they are often misunderstood. How much do you know about sharks? Write 'fact' or 'fiction' next to each statement:

- Sharks have bony skeletons. _____
- There are over 500 species of sharks known today. _____
- All sharks have teeth. _____
- All sharks have to keep swimming to stay breathe. _____
- Sharks can only be found in the open ocean. _____
- Sharks can lose 30,000 teeth in their lifetime. _____
- Whale sharks are the largest species of shark. _____
- Sharks are found only in saltwater. _____
- Shark attacks happen because they like to eat people. _____
- Humans fish over 100 million sharks every year. _____
- Sharks are important to the health of the ocean. _____

Watch this video to check your answers!